

English Language and English Literature

Week commencing	What will be happening in lessons this week?	Evidence generated	Standardisation and moderation activities
15 th March	Completion of Shakespeare study.	N/A	N/A
22 nd March	Prepare students for a school-based assessment on the Shakespeare play studied
29 th March (break up on Thu 1 st)	30/3/21 Students complete their school-based assessment on their Shakespeare play in their English lesson. Revise cluster poems already studied in preparation for school-based assessment.	AQA past paper Literature essay on Shakespeare question covering all assessment objectives AO1, AO2, AO3 and AO4 for GCSE English Literature	Shakespeare assessment marked and judged for standardisation purposes during faculty meeting involving all members of the English teaching team.
5 th April	Easter Holiday
12 th April	Easter Holiday
19 th April	Revise cluster poems already studied in preparation for school-based assessment. Named poem pre-released to students. 20/4/21 Students complete their school-based assessment on their cluster poetry in their English lesson. 21/4/21 11a and 22/4/21 11b Students complete their school-based assessment on unseen poetry in lessons.	AQA past paper Literature essay question covering all assessment objectives AO1, AO2, AO3 and AO4 for GCSE English Literature	Cluster poetry assessments marked and judged for standardisation purposes during faculty meeting involving all members of the English teaching team. Unseen standardisation taken from AQA examiner materials. Unseen poetry response will be 'blind marked' .

Establishing Evidence for TAG's – Subject Overview

26 th April	Preparing for success in GCSE English Language Paper One. Friday 30/4/21: Reading material for school-based assessment to be pre-released on Teams in digital format.
3 rd May (Bank Holiday Monday)	4/5/21 students complete the reading section of Paper One in their English lessons. 5/5/21 11a and 6/5/21 11b students complete the writing section of Paper One in their English lessons.	AQA past paper covering all assessment objectives AO1, AO2, AO4, AO5 and AO6 for GCSE English Language	Thursday 7/5/21 required for standardising reading and writing sections; marked and judged for standardisation purposes during faculty meeting involving all members of the English teaching team.
10 th May	Preparing for success in GCSE English Language Paper Two. Friday 14/5/21: Reading material for school-based assessment to be pre-released on Teams in digital format.
17 th May	18/5/21 students complete the reading section of Paper Two in their English lessons. 19/5/21 11a and 20/5/21 11b students complete the writing section of Paper Two in their English lessons.	AQA past paper covering all assessment objectives AO1, AO2, AO3, AO5 and AO6 for GCSE English Language	Faculty meeting 20/5/21 required for standardising reading and writing sections; marked and judged for standardisation purposes during faculty meeting involving all members of the English teaching team. Writing section of Paper Two will be 'blind marked'.
24 th May	Consolidation week.		Faculty meeting 25/5/21 involving all members of the English teaching team. Teachers collaborate and moderate their marking in small groups. TAGs to be entered in SIMS mark sheets by end of school on Friday 28 th May.
1 st June	Half Term		